

PMS Parent and Community Involvement

Welcome signs and friendly greetings

Respond to parent calls and letters

Homework Hotline

Parent's resource bulletin board

Teachers maintain a parent contact log

Tuesday Folders sent home with 4th and 5th grade students

Monthly newsletters mailed home to students in grades 6-8

Open House programs for new 4th graders and transitioning 6th graders

Back to School Night for grades 5, 7, and 8

After school program offers homework help

Grandparents to lunch for Grandparents Day

Invite Moms and Dads to lunch during National School Lunch Week

Dads and Sons to Dinner and a Movie

Moms and Daughters Jewelry Jamboree

Pocomoke Middle School website: www.pocomokemiddle.org

PTA/Conferences held in conjunction with an activity

Ice Cream Social

S.T.E.M.

Holidays Around the World

Spring Fling

Families invited to quarterly recognition assemblies

Families invited to quarterly Honor's Night Event

Families invited to visit during American Education Week

Families invited to band concerts, musical performances, and art exhibits

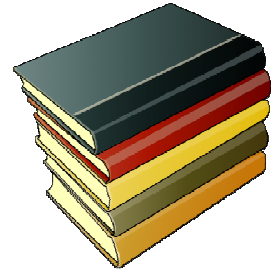

Families invited to Geography Bee, Tech Fest, and Science Fair

Articles and photos sent to newspapers

Intergenerational reading opportunities

Provide training for teachers in parent conferencing

Collaborate with Pocomoke Public Library to help with research projects and obtain library cards

Recruit parent volunteers and provide training and recognition

Parents and community members serve on PSPC (Pocomoke Strategic Planning Council)

Parents serve on SIAC (School Improvement Advisory Committee)

Parents serve on PTA Executive Board

Partner with community to provide students with service learning

Students' artwork is displayed in local businesses and museums

Feature Pocomoke Schools on Chamber of Commerce website

Family Connections Liaison meets regularly at public library to provide an off-site parenting workshop

Minister's Gatherings. . .

Publicize school events on local radio stations

Create display boards for churches to share information about PMS

Parents + School + Community = Student Success